Homework Submission and Grading Guidelines

Submission Guidelines

1. Homework is due on Sunday at midnight of each week.
2. You can submit homework up to 3 times.
3. Homework is counted late if it submitted after the due date and time
4. Late penalty for homework is 20% up to 2 weeks late and 30% thereafter
5. If you cannot finish the homework in time send me an email with a request for an extension at least 24 hours before the due date. If you receive an extension, paste my email in your late homework submission to avoid the late submission penalty
6. If you cannot finish the homework, submit the incomplete work with a note. As long as you made a good faith attempt and submit before the due date, homework will not be counted late.
7. Late submission penalty may be exempted with prior permission or under unforeseen circumstances in all the above cases by the instructor.

Starting from Chapter 2, Homework will only be accepted if:

1. It includes in a single word document a) a screenshot of python code in the IDLE along with a b) screenshot of output c) copied and pasted code. These should all be in a single word document in the order a, b, c.
2. After the word document you should attach the python .py program.

Grading Guidelines

Grading Rubric

1. Homework code works and uses the concepts listed and used in the chapter. 80%
2. Python files are attached 10%
3. Word document is attached with screenshot of code and output and copied and pasted code. 10%

- Once a homework is submitted completely it will be graded within a week of the due date along with feedback. After that you can resubmit it to improve your grade up to two more times.
- Homework cannot be graded till it includes both 2 and 3. If homework is missing either the python file or the word document, it will be sent back along with a request to resubmit the missing file.
- Resubmitting missing python or word files does not count towards a submission attempt.
- Resubmitting missing files or making changes in the homework code should usually be completed within 2 weeks of grading. After that late penalty of 30% applies.
